

We can trust our strong God!

Dear God,

You are a strong God, and I thank You that I can trust that! Psalm 147:5 NASB 1995 reminds me that “Great is our Lord and abundant in strength; His understanding is infinite.” I serve a mighty God who is not intimidated by my circumstances.

Take a few moments to praise God for His strength!

I confess to You that I worry too much, and that I try to work out too many problems on my own without praying about them. I thank You for the many times in the past where You have graciously rescued me.

Tell God about your sins and ask Him to help you change. No need to write this down.

I thank You for the answers to prayers You have provided.

What are you thankful for? Jot down how God has blessed you and/or answered prayer.

Lord, I want to come to You with what I am worried about now. Philippians 4:6-7 NASB 1995 tells me to “Be anxious for nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which surpasses all comprehension, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.”

What are you worrying about today? As you write out some of these worries, hand them over to God and ask Him for peace.

Thank You that I can trust You to answer my prayers in Your perfect timing. In Jesus' Name, Amen
